Book at Bedtime 2017

Tuesday 08th November 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

Book at Bedtime Wednesday 15th November 2017 at 5pm

Parents often say that bedtime stories can be the one part of the day when the busy whirlwind of the life stops, peace descends and we sit together, quietly sharing stories and taking journeys into the world of our children's imagination. Sometimes the stories we most love to share, are the ones we remember from when we were young. To celebrate this magical tradition, we would like to invite parents and children to have their bedtime story at school on Wednesday 15th November at 5pm.

Children can come to school wearing their pyjamas and can bring a favourite cuddly toy, cushion or blanket from home to get comfy and relax.

- Reception and Nursery Children will listen to a selection of bedtime stories with their class teacher.
- KS1 and KS2 will be able to choose from a selection of stories across the school.

KS1 classrooms:

Mars: Cressida Cowell (How to Train your Dragon Stories)
 Pluto: Julia Donaldson
 Venus: Jill Murphy (The Worst Witch stories)

KS2 classrooms:

Uranus Class- Roald Dahl
 Saturn Class- 10 Minute tales
Year 5 and 6 classrooms:
 Jupiter: Michael Morpurgo
 Earth: David Walliams
 Mercury: JK Rowling (Harry Potter)

We will meet in the hall at 5pm prompt where children will be met by staff and led away to hear their chosen story.

- The children will return at 5.20 for a refreshment break until 5.30 where they will then choose a new story.
- We hope to finish at 5.45pm when staff will bring children back to the hall to be collected by parents.
- The book fair will be open for all to browse and buy from 5pm onwards (please let us know if you can help).
- The PSG have kindly offered to provide refreshments for all.

I would just like to take this opportunity to once again thank you for all your support!

Yours Sincerely,

The English Team
